About Town And Country

Ed Heister, Sent Here Nearly 40 Years Ago, Just Stayed

ED HEISTER overextended his stay a bit.

Mr. Heister, well-known plumbing contractor and dealer, came here in September of 1916 to do 12 days of work and he's been here since. Mrs. Heister came down from Chicago to spend the time with her husband, and she stayed, too.

Back in 1916 they resided in Chicago, with Mr. Heister making trips here and there doing plumbing on construction jobs. Mrs. Heister remained in Chicago.

He got a job as a construction foreman over the pipe work at Saltville, Va., with a construction company putting up the power plant for a chemical warfare installation at Saltville during World War I.

The superintendent of this job had a remodeling contract at the Muddy power plant and sent Mr. Heister here to put in a new water heater for the boiler. He had been at Saltville about six months.

"The job will take you twelve days," he was told. Arriving in Harrisburg he wrote Mrs. Heister and she came down to stay with him during the two weeks.

When he arrived at the Muddy plant, the material for his job was not there. In fact, it was three months before it did arrive.

Meanwhile, he found jobs to do. He worked on suction lines from the spray pond to the condensers while waiting for the material.

After the heater was put up, he continued on construction until September, 1919, exactly a year, when he decided to go into business in Harrisburg.

He contacted his brother, Henry, at Bloomington, and the two set up in Harrisburg, in the basement of the First National bank building. Later they moved to South Jackson street and then to South Vine. Henry died in 1932 and Ed carried on the business, which moved to North Vine and to its present expanded quarters on East Leport.

Speaking of his long span in the plumbing business, Mr. Heister remarked that plumbing hasn't changed too much during the years, except for the fixtures but there has been big changes in heating installation.

A. H. WILLIAMS of Cottage township came to town Saturday and presented Timotheus with a big egg—nine and a half inches around the long way and six and a quarter inches the other.

Mr. Williams, who lives about nine miles east of Harrisburg on Equality Route 1, has been a steady reader of The Register for 50 years, which might make him a champion in that field.

It was in October, 1908, that Mr. Williams subscribed to the Saline County Register, which was the weekly that preceded The Daily Register.

"I was born in Kentucky but was living at Shawneetown when I first started taking the Register," he stated. "I got it every Thursday evening. Since that time I guess there has not been 12 months altogether that I have been without it."

Driving Too Fast Most Frequent Cause of Accidents

SPRINGFIELD — A State Highway Division study today showed "driving too fast for conditions" was the most frequent cause of traffic accidents on non-urban Illinois highways.

The study of 19,172 accidents on numbered state highways outside of cities showed 2,741 apparently caused by speed, 115 of them involving fatalities. The study covered the first nine months of 1955.

Reckless driving, apparent principal cause in 977 accidents, resulted in 127 fatalities.

A total of 781 persons were killed in the 593 accidents causing deaths. Total fatalities for all highway accidents in the nine-month period in the state were 1,491.

Failure to yield the right of way was the second most frequent cause of accidents, causing 1,792. But there were only 34 fatalities involved in these accidents.

Of the 34,997 drivers involved in accidents, the largest number—8,830—were in the 35-44 age group. That age group also was involved in the largest number of fatal accidents, 204.

Accidents involving teen-agers totaled 3,354, including 87 involving fatalities.

Largest numbers of accidents occurred on Saturdays and Sundays. The most dangerous hours to drive apparently were any day from 2 p. m. to 7 p. m., when the greatest number of accidents occurred.

Lucas Pulls Out Of Democratic Race for Senate

Action Improves Chances of State Rep. Richard Stengel

CHICAGO (AP)—Former Sen. Scott W. Lucas today withdrew his name from consideration for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

State Central Committeeman Fred A. Cain, Jacksonville, said Lucas had authorized him to take his name off the list of candidates before a party slate-making committee.

Cain said Lucas' withdrawal would be "the first order of business as far as I'm concerned" at today's slate-making session. The action appeared to improve the chances of State Rep. Richard Stengel, Rock Island, regarded as the leading candidate for endorsement by U. S. senator.

For governor, the names mentioned most frequently in the Morrison Hotel corridors were those of two Cook County officeholders—Sheriff Joseph B. Lohman and Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen. Gray and Young Also Considered.

Six downstaters and 11 Chicago party leaders composed the slate-making group. The committee began its work last week by interviewing more than 30 candidates. It met for two hours late Monday, then adjourned until today.

Joseph L. Gill, who heads up the Chicago Democrats on the committee, said the main chore facing the slate-makers was filling the spots for U. S. senator and governor.

"After they're resolved I think things will move along rapidly," Gill said.

Others considered for senator were State Sen. James W. Gray, East St. Louis, and Roy E. Young, Springfield, former state agriculture director.

Committee Meets Wednesday

It was understood that renewed efforts had been made to get U. S. Rep. Melvin Price, East St. Louis, to enter the race but Price declined.

State Party Chairman James A. Roman, Chicago, already had summoned the State Central Committee to meet in Springfield Wednesday to receive the slate-makers' recommendations, so it was considered likely the endorsements would be made sometime today.

Mayor Richard J. Daley, who is Cook County Democratic Chairman, has been plugging for an "open" primary. However, it appeared his suggestion would be discarded.

Sebe Kelly Elected President of The Dinner Club

Sebe Kelly of Eldorado is the new president of the Southern Illinois Dinner Club. He was elected at a recent meeting of the board of directors of the club, who also re-elected Ross Turner secretary.

New members of the board of directors are Warren J. Meyer, Omaha, Dan Ludlow, Harrisburg, and N. C. Morris, Eldorado.

Mr. Kelly replaces G. Hudson Muge, Harrisburg, who served as president of the Dinner club meeting during 1955.

The next meeting of the club will be held Friday, Jan. 27, at which time Toni Gauer, a native of Switzerland, will be the guest speaker.

Other meetings during the winter and spring will be as follows: Wednesday, Feb. 22, Robert Kazmayer, who at present is in Egypt and conducts guided tours to Europe;

Thursday, March 22, the speaker as yet unnamed;

Thursday, April 19, the Flying Reporter.

Escaping Gas Blamed For Deaths of Mother and Daughter

ROME, Ill. — Bottled gas escaping from a wall-type furnace was blamed today for the deaths of Mrs. Blanche McCabe, 49, and her 18-year-old daughter, Corrine. Mrs. McCabe's husband said he found the bodies when he returned from work Monday. Both women had collapsed after making a vain effort to reach a door in their home, police said.

Two Eldorado School Districts Receive $15,688 Oil Royalty

Two Eldorado school districts today received a total of $15,688.22 royalty from two oil wells.

R. C. Gardner, county superintendent of schools, today delivered the check to be deposited in the building funds of the Eldorado township high school and the College Heights grade school districts.

The high school received $11,650.27, College Heights $4,037.95. The money was in the initial check for royalty and override in the High School unit and the Gates Community unit wells inside a 20-acre communized block which contains land owned by the two school districts.

The high school owns more than five of the 20 acres and the grade school a lesser amount in the block.

The check was for accumulated royalty payments between May, 1955, and November, 1955. Other checks, following this seven-month accumulation, are expected to arrive each month.

Adamowski Bolts Democrats to Run For the GOP

CHICAGO (AP)—Benjamin S. Adamowski, longtime Democratic leader, announced today he'll bolt the Democratic party and accept the Republican nomination as candidate for Cook county state's attorney.

He said he had accepted the offer of a GOP slate-making committee after conferring with Gov. William G. Stratton in Springfield late Monday.

"I am amply satisfied that the only commitment asked of me by the Republican leadership is to 'do the best job as state's attorney that has ever been done in the history of Cook county.' That condition is willingly accepted," he said.

The slate-making committee offered Adamowski the party organization backing in the April 10 primary election. He called him a man "whose record in public life is one of civic responsibility."

Adamowski, former Illinois House majority leader and former Chicago corporation counsel, said he had "believed in and practiced political independence and integrity in every position of responsibility during my entire public career."

Adamowski said he talked with Stratton because "the governor is a candidate, too. He is head of the ticket and... I would like to know if my action will be favorable or unfavorable."

Adamowski served five terms in the Illinois House in the 1930s. He bucked the Democratic organization in running unsuccessfully for U. S. senator in 1940 and for congressman-at-large in 1942.

It was the second straight year the Republicans offered the top spot on their ticket here to a man from Democratic ranks. Last year, the GOP candidate for mayor was ex-Democrat Robert Merriam.

They were identified as Dennis Ray Kemp, 20, and his 17-year-old wife.

The heater in their basement apartment in Milton still was burning when Deputy Coroner O. Derrel Smith pronounced them dead. He said all the oxygen apparently was "burned off" or the heater gave off a fatal amount of carbon monoxide.

The Kemps' 4-month-old son, Dennis Jr., escaped a similar fate when he spent the night with Mrs. Kemp's sister, Mrs. Ruth Schneider, Alton.

Heater Fumes Kill-Young Couple

ALTON, Ill. — A young Illinois couple were found dead in their suburban home near here Monday, apparently the victims of fumes from a gas heater.

They were identified as Dennis Ray Kemp, 20, and his 17-year-old wife.

The heater in their basement apartment in Milton still was burning when Deputy Coroner O. Derrel Smith pronounced them dead. He said all the oxygen apparently was "burned off" or the heater gave off a fatal amount of carbon monoxide.

The Kemps' 4-month-old son, Dennis Jr., escaped a similar fate when he spent the night with Mrs. Kemp's sister, Mrs. Ruth Schneider, Alton.

A. P. Cox, 81, Retired Eldorado City Official, Dies

A. P. Cox, 81, retired police magistrate residing at 701 Panama street in Eldorado, died last night at 10 o'clock in the Pearce hospital where he had been a patient for the past 10 days.

Mr. Cox was also a retired school teacher and city commissioner.

He leaves his wife, Nora; one son, Charles E. Cox, Dearborn, Mich.; one daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Morris, Eldorado; and the following stepchildren: Frank, Duke and Dewey Binkley, Mrs. Duke Gass, all of Salem, Ky., and Mrs. Louella Brider, St. Louis, Mo.; five grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and the following brothers: Austin, Eldorado, Harvey, Omaha, and Orley and Everett Cox of Piggott, Ark., and one sister, Mrs. Ethel Underwood of Piggott, Ark.

The body lies in state at the Bean and Tanner funeral home.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the First Methodist church in Eldorado. Rev. C. C. Lowe, Bridgeport, former pastor, will officiate and burial will be in the Poplar cemetery.

Shawneetown Man Dies

William Crikie of Shawneetown died suddenly yesterday while working on a Gallatin county farm near Shawneetown. The body is at the Wright funeral home and plans await the arrival of a son and a daughter from a distant home.

Neff Asks Public To Help Prevent Forest Fires

Shawnee Supervisor Says Most Blazes Have Been Small Ones

Supervisor L. P. Neff of the Shawnee National Forest, declaring there had been no appreciable moisture in the forest during the past 60 days, today urged utmost precautions from the public to prevent forest fires.

Mr. Neff said that ranger districts were reporting one or two fires each day but that so far most had been small ones which fire fighters were able to contain.

Biggest factors, he said, in keeping down the fires despite the extremely long dry period, have been (a) frosts which provide some moisture to shorten the burning period during the day; (b) absence of drying winds; and (c) an apparent greater consciousness of the situation by the public in general.

Number One Cause

Mr. Neff said that foresters are looking ahead with apprehension several weeks from now when the frosts will be less frequent and winds will dry out whatever moisture may be left, if there are no substantial rains before then.

He said that except for 1954, when there was fairly good rainfall, there have been four years of drought in the national forest area. Repeated cautioning during this period, he believed, has resulted in more care being exercised by the public to keep down fires.

Burning rubbish and weeds areas, he stated, is still the No. 1 cause of forest fires. Fires either get out of control because the person leaves them, or they make fast headway and get away from the person tending them, he said.

Biggest fire-fighting job the national forest personnel has had to date, he continued, was south of Jonesboro, where fire outside the Shawnee Forest area was threatening the forest.

Pile-up of Work

Although most have been nuisance fires and not severe ones, Mr. Neff said, there are enough of them to tie up the district rangers, who have a pile-up of work at this time of year. This is the big timber-use season, he explained, and rangers should be getting timber areas ready for cutting.

A check of rainfall records with Harrison Kibler, who keeps them at the Pankey Branch station, revealed Harrisburg got but .47 inch of precipitation in December. There was .35 inch of rain Dec. 1, .07 inch of snow and rain Dec. 8 and .05 inch of snow and rain Dec. 14. Thus there has been no precipitation at all in nearly a month.

There was 2.95 inches of precipitation in November, the highest fall, 1.74 inches, coming on Nov. 15.

And the March of Dimes received 222,074 pennies.

The Penny Parade will be conducted among the same lines as last year. A quota of 100 pennies per each high school student is the basis for the contest.

Various home rooms or classes will nominate candidates for Polio Queen and the candidates receiving the largest number of pennies will be the schools' representative for County Queen.

Percentages will be used in determining the county queen. The school collecting the highest percentage of its quota, based on 100 pennies for each student enrolled, will have its candidate crowned Saline County Polio Queen.

In the 1955 penny parade each school collected more than 100 per cent of its quota, with Carrier Mills leading the parade. Carrier Mills had a quota of 21,000 pennies, but collected 54,250, or 258 per cent. Miss Elaine Smith of Carrier Mills was County Queen. Her attendants were Miss Shirley Rich of Galatia, Miss Beth York of Eldorado and Miss Robin Wathen of Harrisburg.

Galatia, with a quota of 19,000 pennies, collected 33,342 or 175 per cent; Eldorado's quota was 44,600 and 49,132 was collected for 110 per cent; Harrisburg, with a quota of 80,500 collected 83,350, or 107 per cent.

Students will be encouraged to make collections in pennies, picking up a penny here and there and not collecting a dollar and converting it into pennies.

If the campaign is conducted strictly as a penny parade it will accomplish the purpose of adding a large sum of money to the March of Dimes and not conflict with other fund raising programs.

Representatives of the four schools—Harrisburg, Eldorado, Carrier Mills and Galatia—will present their pennies in a special program between the two games the first night of the county basketball tournament.

The tourney is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27-28.

Slayer Receives Death Sentence

PRINCETON, Ind. — Leslie Irvin, accused of the "Chinese execution" murders of six persons, will die in the electric chair June 12 unless his lawyers can gain a stay of execution.

Circuit Judge A. Dale Eby Monday imposed the death sentence recommended by a jury which found Irvin guilty of one of the murders Dec. 20.

Irvin was convicted of murdering an Evansville, Ind., service station attendant. He also is accused of slaying two other persons in Indiana, as well as three members of a Kentucky family.

In each case, the victims were forced to kneel while the killer shot them in the head in "Chinese execution" style.

Porterfield called state police who notified police here.

Local authorities said they found the body of Mrs. Margerie Johnson, 33, lying on the floor in front of a picture window in the Johnsons' "well-furnished" three-bedroom home.

A year-old daughter, Margaret, was found dead in her crib and Barbara, 3, was sprawled in a swivel "television" chair near her mother. Police said the bullet which killed Barbara also struck her mother in the leg.

Fourteen empty shells from a .32 caliber pistol were found in the house, police said, but only eight bullets were located. They said Johnson apparently emptied a full clip of eight bullets at his wife, reloaded and shot his children.

They said a "very close neighbor" of Johnson's who once worked with him told them the physicist vowed he was "on the wagon" only a few hours before the shootings.

Four High Schools to Conduct Penny Parade for Polio at County Tourney

The four high schools in Saline county will again sponsor a Polio Penny Parade in conjunction with the annual Saline County basketball tournament, it was announced today.

Last year the penny parade was held for the first time and proved both popular and profitable. Every one seemed to enjoy the friendly competition, both among groups in the schools and between the schools themselves.

And the March of Dimes received 222,074 pennies.

The Penny Parade will be conducted among the same lines as last year. A quota of 100 pennies per each high school student is the basis for the contest.

First Concerted March Of Dimes Campaign Scheduled Wednesday

The first concerted fund-raising program in the 1956 March of Dimes campaign in Harrisburg is scheduled for Wednesday, when the businesses of Harrisburg will be contacted.

Mrs. Ed Brantley heads a committee of 12 Harrisburg women that will solicit for the March of Dimes in all businesses of the city.

They will start the campaign at 10 a. m. tomorrow and plan to complete the program sometime Wednesday afternoon.

However, if some of the business men are not in their places of business when the women call Wednesday, they will make call backs Thursday.

In addition to the women mentioned in Monday's story regarding the fund raising project, two others, Mrs. Carl Rude and Mrs. Victor Humm have volunteered to help in the drive.

Edward I. Hish, 66, Former Ridgway Businessman, Dies

Edward I. Hish, 66, who for many years was prominently associated with the grain-buying business in Ridgway, died Monday in St. Petersburg, Fla., following a paralytic stroke.

For the past few years Mr. Hish had lived in Carmi.

He is survived by his wife, Elsie, who was with him, and one son, John Edward Hish, Ridgway, who was associated with his father in the grain business.

The body will be returned to Ridgway by the Smith and Edwards funeral service and will arrive Thursday night. Funeral plans are incomplete.

Congressional Leaders Meet With President

Agree New Farm Plan Should Be Given High Priority

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders gave President Eisenhower an optimistic report today on the chances of Congress passing the bulk of the administration's new legislative program.

In a 1 hour and 20 minute conference at the White House, the President and his congressional lieutenants agreed that the new farm program which Mr. Eisenhower outlined in a special message Monday should get a high priority in Congress.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California also said it will be necessary to take a look at the budget situation on April 1 before deciding what can be done about an election year tax cut.

Mr. Eisenhower in his State of the Union message last week ruled out tax relief until the budget is balanced and at least a "modest" payment can be made on the national debt.

It was Mr. Eisenhower's first meeting with GOP congressional leaders since Congress convened last week. Knowland said the leaders told the President that his State of the Union and farm messages both had been "well received" on Capitol Hill.

Knowland and House GOP Leader Joseph E. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts emphasized that politics and the question of Mr. Eisenhower's running for a second term were not discussed.

Knowland said today's conference was devoted to a discussion of school aid, the budget, economic conditions, highway legislation, and taxes, as well as the farm problem.

The consensus of the meeting, he said, was that the President's program so far has been "well received" in Congress and that a "high priority" should be given to the farm proposals.

Depressed Area Plan Inadequate, Douglas Claims

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) today branded as "grossly inadequate" the administration's new proposal to help financially distressed communities.

Douglas, who has been conducting lengthy hearings on problems of depressed areas, said he was "glad the administration has at last recognized the need for doing something" for them. But he said he hoped Congress would pass a Democratic aid bill he introduced last July.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, a co-sponsor of the Democratic bill, accused the administration of trying to grab "political credit" by offering its own program of loans and technical help to areas with high unemployment.

The Minnesota Democrat called the administration bill "long on sentiment and short on substance" and urged President Eisenhower to back the more liberal Democratic measure.

The government would be authorized to lend up to 50 million dollars to individuals or groups in such areas to build, buy or remodel factories or to develop land for new factories. The program also would provide for up to 1-1/2 million dollars a year in outright grants to local governing bodies for "technical assistance" in the development of new industries.

However, if some of the business men are not in their places of business when the women call Wednesday, they will make call backs Thursday.

In addition to the women mentioned in Monday's story regarding the fund raising project, two others, Mrs. Carl Rude and Mrs. Victor Humm have volunteered to help in the drive.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON says: Un-American Activities Counsel Once Convicted Of Taking A Bribe; Court Of Appeals Reverses TV Grant To Mrs. Hobby's Husband.

WASHINGTON. — Congressional investigating committees digging into the past lives of newspapermen back in the 1930's might well dig into the past lives of their own staff members.
Counsel for one such committee, the House Un-American Activities committee, is Thomas W. Beale, usually called "Judge Beale." Judge Beale was a justice of the peace in Jefferson county, Ky., some years ago and if his own investigators dug carefully into the records of that county they would find that Judge Beale was once convicted of taking a bribe.

When J. F. Crump was arrested by two Kentucky patrolmen, Thomas Stinson and John Ely, in connection with a traffic violation, a jury found that "Beale did unlawfully, willfully and corruptly propose to said Crump that if said Crump paid him $3, he, the said Beale, would not prosecute."
"Crump thereupon delivered and paid over to the said Beale $3," the jury found. This occurred on Dec. 20, 1931.

The same "Judge" Beale is now sitting in judgment on his fellow men for indiscretions of which they were guilty back in the 1930's. Asked for an explanation of the incident, "Judge" Beale replied: "No comment."

MRS. HOBBY'S HUSBAND
The U. S. Court of Appeals has now reversed one of the most political TV decisions of the politically minded Federal Communications Commission — an award giving Mrs. Hobby's husband a one-third interest in a television station in Beaumont, Tex.

The FCC, which is in for an investigation by Senator Magnuson of Washington next week, had originally turned down the husband of the only lady member of Ike's cabinet, and had ruled that he could not have a TV station in Beaumont, since he already operated a radio and TV station, KPRC and KPRC-TV, plus a powerful newspaper, The Post, in Houston.

The FCC also turned down the Enterprise Co., because it owned newspapers, and gave the TV license instead to the Beaumont Broadcasting Company.

Then suddenly, the FCC did an unusual thing. It scheduled a re-

5,476 Receive Surplus Food Aid In Saline County

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Garrett W. Keaster, executive secretary of the Illinois Public Aid Commission, announced today that 54,325 pounds of federal surplus commodities with a retail value of $153,724 were distributed to 53,374 recipients of public assistance and other needy persons during December.

Distribution was made by the commission at an estimated cost of $11,500 in 13 southern Illinois counties.

It consisted of beans, butter, cheese, cornmeal, dry milk, flour, rice and shortening.

The number of persons receiving the commodities in each county were:

Christian, 2,252; Franklin, 9,935; Gallatin, 1,169; Hardin, 774; Jefferson, 3,251; Macoupin, 3,739; Massac, 1,379; Montgomery, 1,624; Perry, 1,712; Pope, 475; Pulaski, 1,759; Randolph, 1,397; St. Clair, 10,592; Saline, 5,476; Williamson, 7,840.

Carey Places Westinghouse Loss At $250 Million

PITTSBURGH. — President James B. Carey of the International Union of Electrical Workers told mayors of 19 cities today the 86-day strike against Westinghouse Electric Corp. has cost the company about 250 million dollars.

He blamed the loss on Westinghouse President Gwilym A. Price. The mayors conferred here with Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence on ways of ending the violence-marked walkout. The unusual meeting came as company and union leaders prepared for a "show-down" negotiating session in Philadelphia Wednesday.

The meeting of the mayors in whose cities strike-bound Westinghouse plants are located was arranged by Columbus, Ohio, Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner. His city has been the scene of some of the most violent picket-line outbreaks in the bitter dispute.

Year-End Employment At Record High

WASHINGTON. — There were 64,145,000 Americans employed at the close of 1955—the highest year-end employment total in history.

The number of unemployed stood at 2,427,000 in December, almost unchanged from November. The Labor Department reported Monday that average factory pay set a new record of $79.80 a week in December. This is an increase of $5.48 over December, 1954. The average factory work week rose to 41.4 hours, the highest December level in three years.

The Labor and Commerce departments said the total number of employed in December was 2,499,639 above the previous record for the month. However, the December figure was 600,000 lower than November, reflecting seasonal cutbacks in farm and construction work.

Virginia Votes Public Supported Private Schools

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A Negro leader said today Virginia Negroes will "wait and see" before deciding what to do about the state's vote for public-supported private schools to avoid school desegregation.

Virginians voted two-to-one Monday in favor of public tuition grants for parents who object to sending their children to integrated schools.

Unofficial tabulations, with 1,762 of the state's 1,861 precincts reporting, showed 300,172 votes for the program with 143,106 votes against it.

Oliver W. Hill, attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said if Virginia does not show good faith toward desegregating its schools, legal steps will be taken to bring the state in line with the Supreme Court decision banning segregated classrooms.

The issue was on calling a convention to amend Section 141 of the state constitution to permit the General Assembly to use public funds to aid in the private education of white Virginia school children.

The next step in the state's anti-integration program is expected Wednesday when Gov. Thomas B. Stanley addresses the opening session of the 1956 state legislature. Stanley has indicated that he wants the assembly to speed up its regular business so it can legislate the tuition-grant program before adjourning in mid-March. Included is another referendum on the naming of delegates to the convention and the convention itself.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

It was Chiang Kai-Shek's son, Chiang Ching Kuo, who ordered the Chinese Nationalist delegation to veto outer Mongolia for membership in the United Nations despite Eisenhower. Young Chiang is now taking over much of his father's power. He's boss of the powerful secret police, is inclined to be anti-American, and has been cracking down on Chinese leaders whom he regards as too pro-American.

The Allies have stockpiled enough food and coal in West Berlin to last a year — in case of another Berlin blockade.

America's Antarctic expedition will try to build a landing strip at the South Pole this summer. The unpublished plan is to drop men by parachute to prepare a strip in the snow for light aircraft.

Russia is building five big bomber bases at the edge of the Iron Curtain. Extra long runways are being installed—capable of handling Russia's huge jet bomber, the Bison.

FLOOD CONTROL IN CALIFORNIA

Congressman Clair Engle, California Democrat, who has become one of the chief needlers of the military brass and one of the toughest battlers for flood control, has a new proposal up his sleeve for harnessing the turbulent flood waters of the Far West.

Congressman Engle comes from the longest congressional district in the United States, stretching from the Oregon border down to the deserts of southern California. Much of his district consists of mountain ranges, most of it public land, and it was his district which suffered heavily from the Christmas floods. If Congress had followed his advice during recent years, enough flood-control dams would have been built on California's rivers to have prevented flooding.

Now Engle has a new proposal, to build the Oroville dam on the Feather river which was badly flooded recently. The state of California got the right to build this dam five years ago, but so far has not moved a shovel or a bulldozer.

The dam will cost $400,000,000 and, if it had been built, much of the flood waters which caused such damage, along the Feather river would have been held upstream.

Therefore, Engle proposes that the Federal government vote $100,000,000, to be matched by $300,000,000 by the state of California, to build this long-delayed dam. Engle also proposes a time limit of two years be placed for the state of California to get busy.

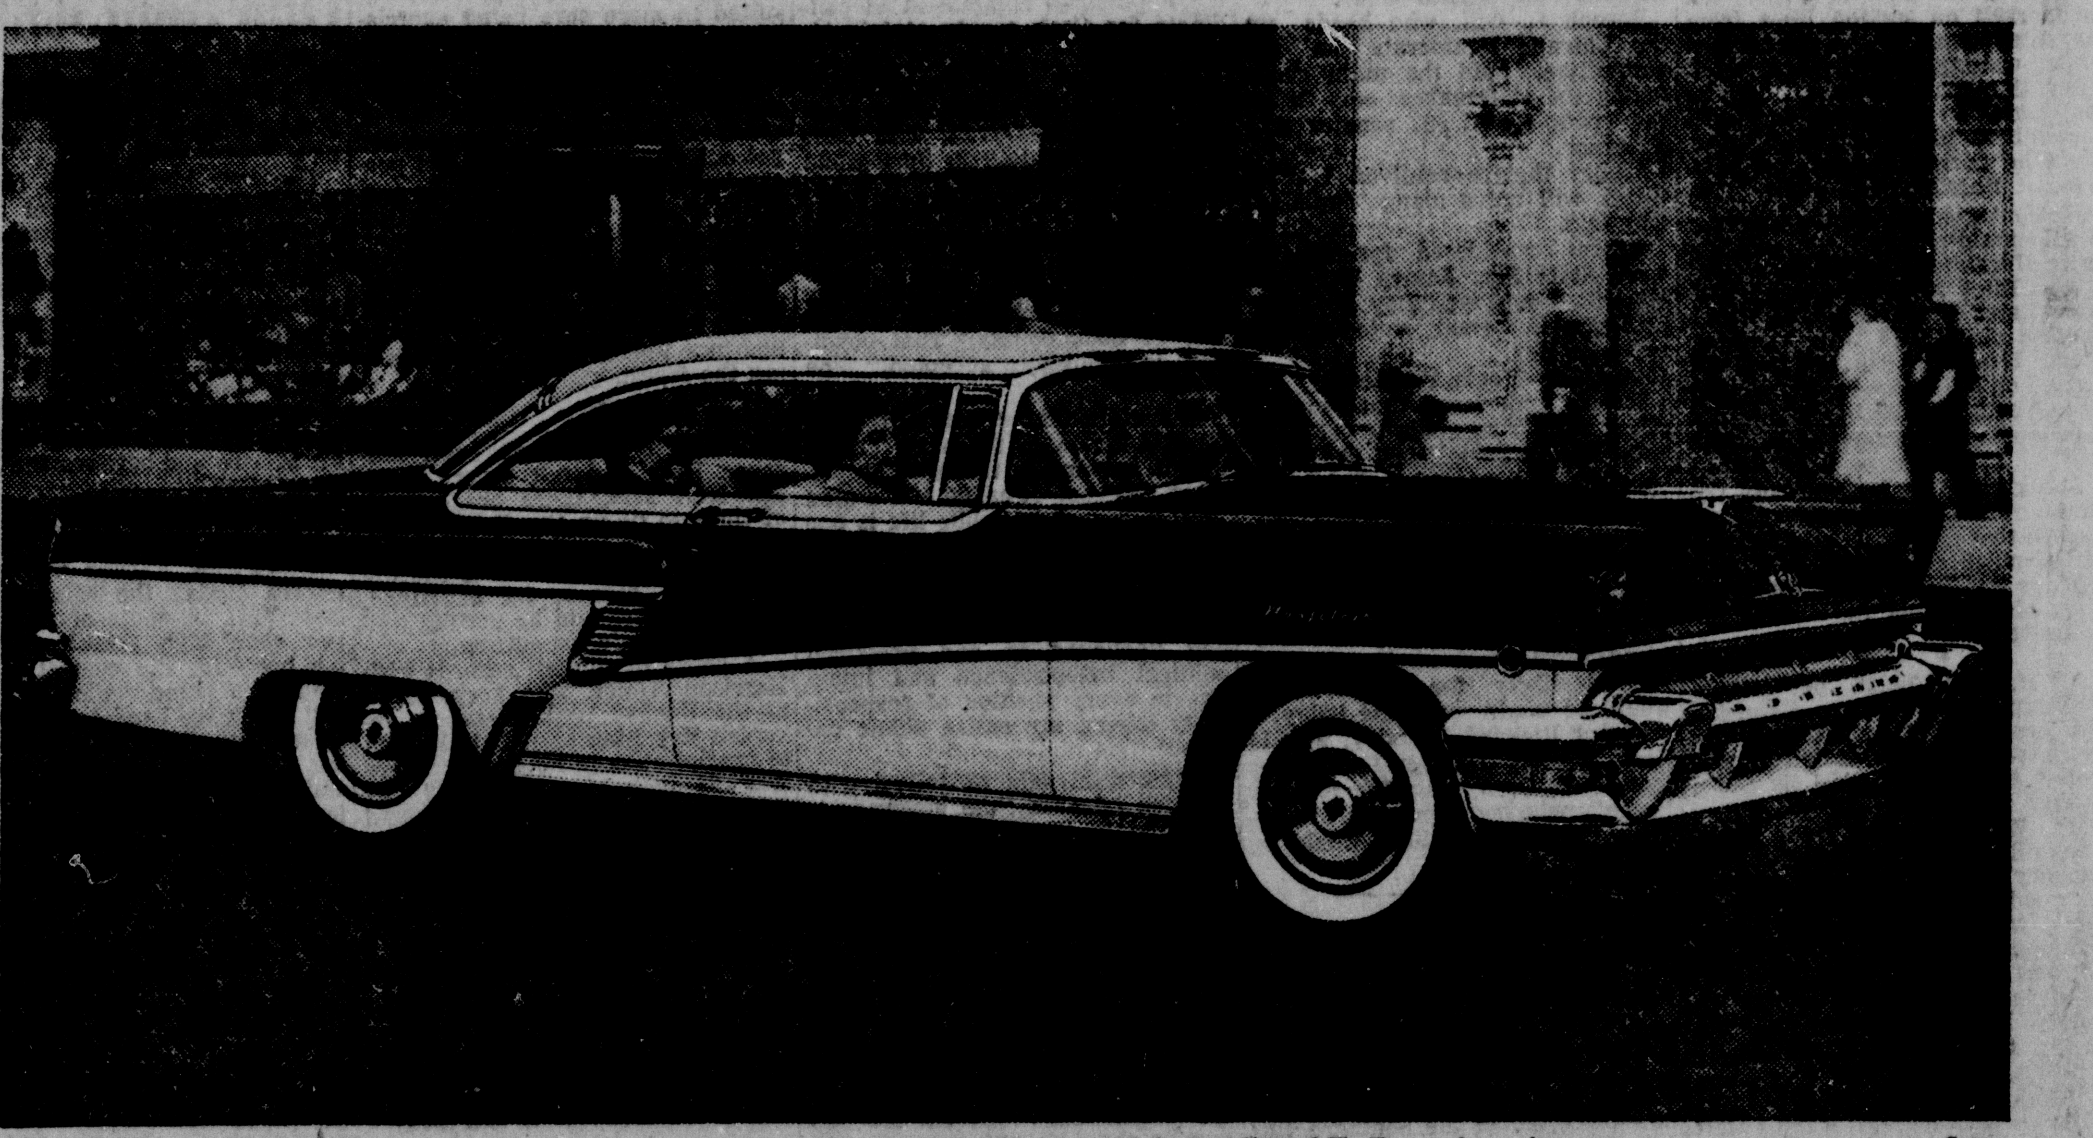

The governor was elated Monday night over the results of the referendum. His appointed education commission had recommended the tuition-grant plan and a special session of the general assembly approved it.

Fairfield Minister Awarded Trip to Mission Fields

Rev. Harry L. Garrett

The members of the First Baptist church of Fairfield are sending their pastor, the Rev. Harry L. Garrett, directly to the foreign mission field for a two weeks' evangelistic crusade.

Rev. Garrett will leave January 25 and return February 15. He will be preaching in a mission in Balboa, Panama, which is composed of mostly colored people.

Mr. Garrett graduated from the Eldorado high school and made his home in Harrisburg from 1935 to 1942. He entered the ministry in 1941 and was ordained December 12, 1941. His first pastorate was Pankeyville Baptist church.

Leaving Harrisburg in 1942, he pastored in Brownfield and Centralia. He received an AB degree from Southern Illinois university in 1947, earned his Masters degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1949, the year in which he returned to Illinois. Rev. Garrett has pastored the First Baptist church in Fairfield since that time.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTETH at any drug counter.

Massachusetts Ends Ban on Polio Vaccine

BOSTON —The Massachusetts Polio Advisory Committee Monday night ended a six-month ban on mass inoculations with the Salk anti-polio vaccine and said there was "no evidence" that the vaccine caused last year's polio epidemic.

The committee said it still does not believe that the present vaccine assures "total freedom from live virus" but said instances of the vaccine inducing the disease would be "rare."

The decision by a board of 19 experts was reached after a six-hour meeting in the office of Massachusetts Public Health Commissioner Dr. Samuel B. Kirkwood. The board includes Nobel Prize winner Dr. John F. Enders.

The recommendation that the health department resume the vaccination program left Idaho the only state in the union still refusing to accept the Salk vaccine. It was in Idaho last summer that a batch of vaccine produced by Cutter Laboratories was found to contain live virus.

Massachusetts discontinued mass vaccinations when an epidemic of polio broke out last spring. At least 128 deaths were reported among some 3,885 cases.

Ford Cautions Stock No Sure Way To Quick Profits

NEW YORK —Henry Ford II warned the public Monday that Ford stock would provide no quick sure way to handsome profits.

"We at Ford are no miracle men but business men," he said in the warning addressed to 1,000 securities dealers who will offer the stock to the general public next week.

He cautioned that some people are indulging in wishful thinking about their chances for "fast and fabulous financial gain."

Ford's statement was considered by Wall Street experts to be partially responsible for the barrage of selling on the stock market late Monday which drove prices to their lowest levels in nearly two months.

Ford told the security dealers he felt it was his duty to issue the caution about the 10,200,000 shares of Ford stock which will go on sale at an estimated price of from $60 to $75 per share.

He said he did not expect the automobile business to be as good in 1956 as it was in 1955.

Biblical "Girl"

Several women are mentioned in the Bible who probably were quite young, but the word "girl" occurs only once in the Bible—in the third chapter of Joel, where a girl is sold for wine.

Made Melodeon

The first melodeon, a small reed organ, was made by C. Austin, of Concord, New Hampshire, who was granted a patent on June 19, 1849.

Employer Coverage Widened Under New Job Insurance Law

Approximately 21,000 additional employers will become subject to the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Act in 1956 for the first time.

The extension of coverage, the first major change in employer liability provisions since 1940, will make employers of four or more workers liable for payroll contributions in 1956. Employers of six or more have been covered in the past.

The Illinois Division of Unemployment has mailed registration forms to most of the employers affected. Prompt completion and return of these forms will permit the setting up of accounts and timely mailing of quarterly reports. Any employer who will be subject to the Act on January 1, 1956 and has not received the registration form should immediately write to the Division of Unemployment Compensation, 165 North Canal Street, Chicago 6, Illinois, and request form UC-1.

Storm Spreads Freezing Rain In Chicago Area

By United Press

An icy winter storm drove out of the East today, reversing the normal flow of weather and sending traffic accidents soaring as far west as Chicago.

The storm, which ranked as the East's worst wintry blast in seven years, spread freezing rain over Ohio, lower Michigan, northeast Indiana, and northern Illinois.

In Chicago, police reported that traffic accidents were occurring at a rate of 100 an hour early today. In the city's park districts, where traffic usually moves faster, the rate was 200 smashups every hour.

Smashups involving as many as 10 cars at a time were reported.

Chicago area motorists were warned that the fast-freezing rain was turning streets and highways into ice slicks. They were urged to leave their cars at home if at all possible.

Along the ice-glazed Eastern Seaboard, the storm slackened somewhat. But sub-freezing weather gripped the Southland, causing damage estimated at more than 10 million dollars to Florida truck crops.

Rains continued to pound New England and the Middle Atlantic states, while rain, snow and freezing drizzle iced the eastern Great Lakes, parts of the Ohio Valley, and western portions of Virginia and North Carolina.

Get Rid of Balloons Around Waistlines, AF Personnel Told

RAMSTEIN, Germany @ - U. S. 12th Air Force men with balloons around their waist will not be allowed to fly.

Maj. Gen. Robert M. Lee, commander of the 12th, sent out a directive to "all personnel" demanding they "pare down waistlines to conform with current Air Force weight standards."

"Failure to comply with the directive" means that "flying personnel will be suspended from flying activities until the reductions have been accomplished," he said.

Both the Air Force and the Army launched similar campaigns against bulging bellies in 1954 and 1955, with special menus offered in messhalls, and with special exercises and medical advice.

Grave Decision

A coffin protrudes from this monument in a churchyard at Pinner, England. It's said that one John London "buried" his father in mid-air to keep relatives from getting the dead man's money. London supposedly believed the estate couldn't be touched until his father was "under ground."

Wright to Ask Dismissal of Suit to Clear Road Bonds

CHICAGO @ - Lawyers for State Treasurer Warren E. Wright said today they will seek dismissal of an Illinois Supreme Court suit aimed at clearing the way for the state's toll road program.

Attorneys Harold Halpenny and William J. Kiley said they will file the dismissal motion with the court in Springfield late today, in reply to a suit by the Illinois Toll Highway Commission.

The commission seeks an order from the Supreme Court directing Wright to deliver 415 million dollars worth of toll road bonds to underwriters in spite of a suit by Harold M. Quincer, Belvidere, attacking the bond sale as invalid.

Halpenny and Kiley said their motion would ask the Supreme Court to take one of three steps:

1. Dismiss the commission's petition so that Quincer's suit can be tried in Cook County Circuit Court.

2. Make Quincer a party to the Supreme Court suit and give him "due process, notice and opportunity to be heard."

3. Grant at least 10 days for Wright to file a reply brief to the commission's suit.

The commission's suit asked that the court rule by Jan. 20

SNAPPY
NEW YEAR

Take a New Year—like this one.

Take a new Buick—like this one.

Put them together, and what have you got?

You've got just about the snappiest time of your entire motoring career—in power and performance and prideful good feeling.

It begins when you drive away from the showroom.

Heads turn to follow your brand-new Buick with its stunning sweep-ahead styling, racy contours, vivid colors.

Next thing you notice is the silken power delivery of a big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with the highest output of high-compression horsepower in Buick history.

But it's not till you enter the stream of traffic that you discover you're bossing the smoothest package of nimbleness on four wheels . . .

Because this time Buick engineers have added a new marvel to the airplane-principled performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

It's something they call "double regeneration"—and it gives you solid new take-hold, sensational new take-off, and exquisite new control right in your normal cruising range at only part throttle—and with new gas savings to boot.

Then, when you want an extra helping of "go" for safety's sake—just floor the pedal and switch the pitch for added take-off that literally wings you on your way.

But there's even more to the story than that.

There's the easy way your Buick turns and parks and handles and does what you want it to do, as though it had a private line to your thoughts.

There's the fresh and eager bounce to your step after a long day's drive—thanks to Buick's deep-oil-cushioned luxury ride.

And there are Buick's surprisingly low prices to consider, along with the outstanding trade-in deals that Buick's volume sales permit us to make.

Come in—drive the best Buick yet—hear our offer—see if you don't snap it up. Can you visit us this week?

New Lines on Display At Home Furnishings Show in Chicago

CHICAGO — The International Home Furnishings Show opened Monday with wholesale prices showing an average increase of 3 to 7 per cent. The first of some 25,000 "wholesale only" buyers turned out at the annual winter market, which runs through Jan. 20. Among the 4,000 exhibits were lamps that light by the touch of a finger, extra long sofas and extra long chairs, and light portable television sets made with aluminum cabinets. Retail stores will begin showing the new lines in the spring. The Daily Register 25c a week by carrier boy.

Evangelist Conducts First Session of Methodist Bible Study

The first session of Bible study being conducted by the Rev. H. Gilbert Williams, evangelist conducting revival services at the First Methodist church, was held today at 10 o'clock with 74 present. The Rev. W. L. Cummins, pastor of the church, had hoped for 75, he said Monday evening at the service. The group will study the First Epistle of John, Mr. Williams announced. The song leader, Rev. Dale Wolcott was present last night to lead the song service and he sang two solos, well received by the congregation. Michigan's first oil pool of any importance was located near Port Huron about 1886.

Economists See No Price Increases By Farm Program

WASHINGTON — Agriculture Department economists said today the administration's new farm program would have little or no impact on prices at the grocery store. "I can't see that the new program would have any immediate effect on consumer prices," said Dr. Frederick V. Waugh, director of the agricultural economics division. "There is plenty of food in the country. If the soil bank plan works out so there is a substantial reduction in commodities, we will still have plenty of food."

"The biggest effect on the consumer as I see it would be the taxes he might have to pay to support the program."

Dr. Don Paarlberg, economic assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, said "the decline in farm prices hasn't made a lot of difference" in the price housewives pay for food, "and I can't see that the new program will make a lot of difference."

Kills Wife to Keep Her From Cashing His Pension Checks

ANDERSON, Ind. — A retired industrial worker told authorities today he choked his wife to death to keep her from cashing his pension checks. George McDonald, 67, said he killed his wife Elsie, 66, as she was about to put on a coat and go downtown to cash one of the checks Monday. Then, he said, he called a daughter saying, "I've just killed mother," and notified police.

Model Wears Dress Backwards

NEW YORK — Some 150 out-of-town fashion writers attending a showing of spring dresses Monday thought nothing unusual about one dress featuring a wildly plunging neckline and a high back, but Paul Farnes, the designer of the dress, did.

He pointed out to the embarrassed model that she was wearing the dress backwards.

Wage Settlement Prevents Closing Of Gary Schools

GARY, Ind. — A last-minute wage settlement has robbed 33,000 Gary school children of an unscheduled vacation. Janitors had been scheduled to walk out of Gary's 26 elementary and high schools Monday. But the walkout was postponed just before the deadline and a settlement later was announced. Officials of the Building Service Employees Union said the agreement involved a wage increase, plus an extension of social security coverage. They would not reveal the details. A walkout would have forced all the city's schools to close. The Daily Register 25c a week

Hot-Shooting Illini Bury Badgers, 96-77; Upsets Hit Indiana, Ohio State, Purdue

CHICAGO — Illinois ruled the most in the Big Ten basketball race today as previously unbeaten Indiana, Ohio State and Purdue all fell by the wayside Monday night.

Harry Combes' Illini, in search of their first Big Ten crown since winning two in a row in 1951 and 1952, sizzled the nets for a .514 field goal shooting percentage in the second half while burying Wisconsin, 96-77.

Iowa stifled rumors that it had "died" by snapping a four-game losing streak in Columbus. The defending champs defeated Ohio State, 88-73, despite a 37-point performance by the Buckeyes' All-American guard Robin Freeman.

Bucky O'Connor's veteran team also ended a seven-game Ohio State victory streak in winning their initial Big Ten triumph. The Hawks were upset in their season's opener Saturday night by Michigan State after holding a seven-point advantage with four minutes to play. And that game was at Iowa City, where the Hawkeyes are supposed to be invincible.

Minnesota's hot-and-cold Gophers dumped Indiana, 77-71, to gain a split in their first weekend home series. Michigan upset the Gophers Saturday, 81-79, in overtime.

It was the hurrying Hoosiers' first loss in three Big Ten engagements and only their second of the season in 11 games. Forward Dave Tucker and Jed Donmeyer led Ozzie Cowles' boys with 23 and 21 points respectively.

Michigan Upsets Purdue

Purdue, after rolling up eight wins in nine games, including two straight in Big Ten play, was upset by Michigan, 74-67, at Ann Arbor. Guard Tom Shearon, whose 25-foot shot with four seconds to play beat Minnesota Saturday, rolled in seven field goals and four free throws to lead the Wolverines to their second straight conference triumph.

A full slate of conference games is scheduled for Saturday. Illinois (2-0) will be at Indiana (2-1), Minnesota (1-1) is at Iowa (1-1), Northwestern (0-2) hosts Michigan (2-1), Wisconsin (0-3) travels to Ohio State (2-1) and Michigan

State (1-1) entertains Purdue (2-1) in the afternoon national television contest.

Other Midwest games this week feature Louisville at Notre Dame, Bradley at St. Louis and Marquette at Valparaiso Wednesday. On Saturday, Loyola (Chicago) travels to Marquette and Louisville meets Valparaiso and De Paul hosts Bradley in a Chicago Stadium doubleheader.

Shawneetown Rated 12th Among Top 15

Herrin Placed Seventh, Mt. Vernon Tenth by UP Board

SPRINGFIELD — Rockford West, champions of 1955, today moved back into the top-rated spot in the United Press rankings of downstate Illinois high school basketball teams.

Despite the ups and downs of holiday tournament play, only four teams dropped from the ratings in the three-week interval since the last previous ratings Dec. 20.

The top 15 teams are rated for the United Press by the downstate coaches who took teams to the state finals in 1955. Fourteen of the 15 downstate coaches cast ballots this week.

The four teams which skidded from the top 15 were Park Forest Rich, Rockford East, Paris and Peoria Central.

The newcomers were unbeaten Washington, rated 5th; unbeaten Shawneetown, rated 12th; Herrin, 7th; and Alton, ranked 13th.

Pinckneyville, first in the Dec. 20 ratings, was placed second. Unbeaten Galesburg held its third spot, and the Collinsville Kahoks, who have lost only to Pinckneyville, were fourth.

Here is the way the coaches rated the teams, with records and total votes:

|                         |     |
| 1. Rockford West 8-1    | 207 |

Rollie Moore of Harrisburg hit the bull's eye in last week's "you pick 'em" with a perfect score. Rollie picked all ten winners and was real close with his score of the game of the week. Eldorado won over Galatia 59-49, a margin of ten points. Moore predicted a 61-49 score in favor of Eldorado—a margin of 12, or just two over the actual count.

Tied for second place were Jake Milstead of Galatia and John Coffee of Shawneetown. They each picked eight and missed two. Milstead missed by picking Galatia over Cave-in-Rock and McLeansboro over Carrier Mills. Coffee also picked Galatia over Cave and his second miss was brought about by Mt. Vernon beating West Frankfort. He picked it the other way.

Didn't have as many entrants last week as we were having before taking time out for the holidays. Maybe business will pick up this week. The more the merrier.

The new American League rule that any manager or his representative may not confer with the pitcher more than once during the pitcher's stay in the game is all right with Casey Stengel, says The Sporting News. Stengel said he's wholeheartedly in favor, because it will speed up play. It won't bother him, he said, because he expects to have the best mound staff in the league in 1956. "My pitchers," he added, "are well informed before they go to the mound."

Cadillac

Not Wealthy... Just Wise !

Most people think that the gentleman who owns and drives a new Cadillac must necessarily be blessed with an abundance of this world's goods.

But the truth of the matter is that a great many motorists of relatively modest means—like the happy man you see here—sit at the wheel of the "car of cars."

For wisdom and practicality lead to Cadillac—just as surely as prominence and prosperity!

The Series Sixty-Two Coupe—the beautiful and inspiring motor car pictured above—costs just a few dollars more than many cars in the "medium-price" bracket.

Cadillac's dependability is so great that the car is virtually free from all but the purely routine requirements of service.

A Cadillac stretches a gallon of gasoline over so many miles that it is the rival of much smaller, lighter cars in this regard.

And a Cadillac, according to accurate and authenticated resale records, will retain its value over the years better than any other automobile built and sold in the land.

The conclusion is self-evident: Cadillac ownership is not only wonderful and thrilling—but sound and sensible as well.

Why not stop in soon for a look and a ride?

You'll see the most beautiful Cadillac ever built . . . and drive the finest-performing Cadillac of all time . . . and discover the greatest value in Cadillac history.

That's Cadillac's magical combination for 1956—and it's waiting for you now in our showroom.

Prominent Peoria Businessman Kills Himself

SPRING BAY, Ill. (AP)—Norman B. (Chief) Williams, prominent Peoria businessman, was found shot to death in his private lodge and authorities said today there was no doubt he committed suicide.

The body of Williams, 57, was discovered Monday. Coroner C. E. Cryer said he had apparently shot himself in the head with a 12 gauge shotgun shortly before midnight Sunday.

A suicide note was also found in the lodge, located on the Illinois River about six miles north of Spring Bay. Cryer would not divulge the contents of the note. But he said it indicated that Williams was having financial troubles and was suffering from ill health.

Williams was owner of Williams Inc., wholesale distributors for the Philco manufacturing concern in northern Illinois. The firm employs between 300 and 400 persons.

Williams, a Streator native, is survived by his wife, Maxine. His only son was killed about 14 months ago while serving in Germany with the armed forces.

GREAT Circle

BY ROBERT CARSE

XXII They dived together almost invariably, taking the line between them, but Kauli first, a knife in his right hand, a big oyster shell that served as a paddle in his left, the bight of the line around his shoulder. Naish a fathom behind him. The water changed color as they descended. It was azure at the surface, afterwards emerald, opal, and in among the slowly waving bronze of the sea fans and the darkness of the old coral where Down at that depth was the pahu, the immense clams which Kauli dreaded worst. Those were six feet in height, three feet wide, and regularly opened their jaws to eat, then swiftly snapped them shut. Unless a man used intense caution a pahu would clamp upon him forever.

There at the maximum depth, working as much by feel as by sight, they slid the bight of the line over a coral outcrop and started up towards the surface. Kauli again first. He followed the track of their air bubbles. But he wriggled, darted, often swam sideways and only looked down at Naish when he believed he went too fast for the other.

It was hard for Naish, he knew. The captain didn't have his skill in the water, and every man's temptation was to get rapidly into the canoe. But it had to be. The captain had learned that he must come gradually to the surface or his lungs would collapse and he would die like a squid that the children played with on the beach.

Kauli greatly admired the captain. The captain was afraid and yet he made each dive. When he broke surface, the force carried him waist-out in the air. His face was mottled; his eyes were distended and his lips were the gray of a newly opened clam. He hurried over the canoe outrigger and lay gasping for many minutes while Kauli talked in a soft voice with Mata'ora.

Mata'ora had decided to help to the degree that he kept watch for them in the canoe. Larned had shamed Mata'ora into that in the same way he had brought the crew to work aboard the ship. The day that Naish had told the crew that the work should begin. Larned had gone aboard by himself. He had slacked off on the anchor cables and let the ship fall astern on the wind to her full scope. Then, still alone, he had lowered one of the whale boats and he had gone in. The captain's cabin and taken down the mirror and made with it what Kauli called a titesa mata. It was notched on one side, with the glass at the bottom. With the glass part submerged, a man could look well below the surface. Mata'ora was charmed by it. He had heard vaguely that the missionaries in the Western islands gave such things to the people who dived for pearls for them. "Maybe," Mata'ora told Kauli, "there's a pearl oyster here."

"Maybe, too," Kauli said without emphasis, "you'd like for the old man to find you a Bible. Then you'll go to the Western islands and learn to wear pants."

"But how about you?" Mata'ora said. "You have already fixed in your head that you are going to go in the ship with the Christians."

"These aren't like the ones on Mangia," Kauli said. "Not at least the captain. And between him and me is feti." That meant a mystical relationship stronger than any friendly bond. Fetu might occur between two men, or two women, and it was guided by the gods, could not be revoked by humans. Mata'ora as both chief and priest on the atoll was powerless to complain about it. Mata'ora shrugged and scratched the sag of his stomach. "You must be very sure that it is feti," he said.

"I am," Kauli said. His certainty had been established yesterday. He and Naish had been diving late with the sun already low on the horizon. They were tired, cold and stiff when they started the last ascent. He had been a bit careless and without his knowledge he had scratched himself on jagged coral, created a trail of blood that had attracted a shark.

The shark struck at him from below on a long tangent. Kauli only saw it after he had noticed the sudden, extreme spurt of Naish's air bubbles. Naish was swimming directly at the shark to save him. Kauli dived back, down, past Naish and, as the shark rolled on its side and the jaws drew for the snapping blow, Naish closed and hung with all his strength to the knife.

The whitish belly ripped along the knife to the bones of the tail. The shark doubled, biting at itself in the final agony. Kauli swam above it and kicked desperately and took Naish in his arms and broke the surface beside the outrigger before the other sharks arrived in response to the blood.

"We work together," Naish said. "I need you. So I did what I could."

Mata'ora was intently listening, trying to understand the English words, and Kauli said nothing more. But on the atoll he walked in the dusk to sit down next to Naish at his house. There were several objects on a tapa mat before Naish and Kauli recognized a chronometer, a sextant, charts and navigation books and gold-cased watch Naish wound every day. "You make ready for the voyage," he said. "These are for the navigation, hey, captain?"

"Yes," Naish said, and looked keenly up at him. "I'm checking them. But after today, Kauli, I think you should call me by my first name as a friend. It's Jared." (To Be Continued)

Experts Hand Congress 20 Tax Cut Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional staff experts today handed Congress 20 "alternative plans" for cutting personal income taxes.

They would cost the treasury from $18,000,000 to $3,303,000,000.

The plans were compiled in a 34-page report by the staff of the Joint Internal Revenue Committee.

The report will constitute a handy—almost indispensable—pocket guide for Congress if it considers tax-cutting proposals this year.

For almost every conceivable tax-cutting plan, the report set forth detailed charts listing the aggregate loss in revenue and the dollar relief that each income group would get.

Most of the plans were weighted in favor of low-income groups. Several would give relief only to taxpayers with incomes of less than $5,000. And 13 of the 20 plans would remove from 2,400,000 to 6,300,000 taxpayers from the tax rolls altogether.

On the other hand, the least expensive plan—costing 18 million dollars—would give relief only to the wealthiest, including married, taxpayers with incomes in excess of $457,519. The most expensive plan—costing $3,303,000,000—would result from adopting the lower tax rates prevailing in Canada and would give high-income groups a bigger dollar savings than any of the other plans.

President Eisenhower told Congress last week he will oppose any tax reduction until there is a big enough budget surplus to make a "modest" payment on the national debt as well. But many members of Congress hope taxes can be cut later this year when the budget outlook is clarified.

Individual income taxes now yield the treasury $29,870,000,000 a year, the report said.

Shuman Endorses Soil Bank Plan With Reservations

MOLINE, Ill. (AP)—Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, endorsed the Eisenhower administration soil bank plan with reservations Monday night.

"Although the President's plan does not contain all the solutions to the problems of agriculture, it is a step in the right direction," Shuman said in a speech.

The program will not replace lost farm income, "but it is a way of getting at the solution of the farm surplus problem," he said. Shuman added that the administration plan is similar to one recommended by the federation's recent Chicago convention.
